

Skin Cancer Early Detection Outreach Service

— Support Services —

There are a number of services available if you are looking for further information or support following your appointment with this Skin Cancer Early Detection service.

Melanoma Patients Australia

Tel: 1300 884 450

www.melanomapatients.org.au

Getting the information and support that you need after a diagnosis of melanoma can be hard. Melanoma Patients Australia offer a range of free, easily accessible information and support services including:

- Information and Support Centre – call the National Melanoma Support Line and speak with someone who understands your situation.
- Melanoma Nurse Telehealth Service – be supported by a specialist melanoma nurse to navigate the health system, access available services and make decisions regarding your health.
- Support Groups – join a support group. Options include digital, Facebook and telephone support groups.
- Peer Support – connect with others who share a similar lived experience.

melanoma.
patients
australia

Cancer Council Queensland

Tel: 13 11 20

www.cancerqld.org.au

If you have a cancer related question – it may be about prevention, early detection, diagnosis and treatment, or about the emotional impact and supports available for you, your family and friends – Cancer Council Queensland offers a range of free support services. These include:

- Direct support – connect with the Cancer Council's Information and Support team.
- Emotional support – access emotional support services to assist you or those surrounding you along the way. Supports includes a cancer counselling service, cancer support groups and cancer connect (where you can speak with someone who has been there and knows what you are going through).
- Practical Support Services – discover a range of practical support programs to ease the burden of a cancer diagnosis and treatment. These include transport services, financial assistance and accommodation lodges if you need to travel to access treatment.

Proudly supported by

This program is made possible through funding from the Queensland Government.

P: 07 3105 8300

E: info@checkup.org.au

W: www.checkup.org.au